

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

Former Kentuckians Going Back Home.

The Louisville Commercial Club is receiving daily hundreds of names of former Kentuckians residing in other States and in different countries who request that invitations be sent them to "Home Coming Week" Louisville, June 13 to 17. The Commercial Club, under whose auspices the event will be given has already received several thousand names, covering every State and territory in this Union, and thirteen foreign countries. The Commercial Club invites all Kentuckians to send it the names and addresses of any friends or relatives who now reside elsewhere. These names should be forwarded at once to R. E. Hughes, secretary, Louisville.

A "Remittance Man's" Problem.

A third story of Stewart Edward White's series "Arizona Nights" appears in McClure's for March, "The Cattlemen's Yarn" is a rattling good one, letting you into the ways of "remittance men" in the West. The remittance man in the cattlemen's story is, contrary to his kind, a good fellow, who shoots straight, and works hard. When a title and a fortune are left him he goes back to England; but he can't escape the fascination of the plains. To return means to lose both money and title. How he works out his problem makes as interesting a story as the author of "The Silent Places" has told in a long time.

Opportunity.

To THE INTELLIGENT:
The four following selections on "Opportunity," the last two evidently based on the first, to me possess a special interest; and as variations on the same theme, they are not contradictory, but each emphasizes a phase of truth. Taken all together, they cover the ground pretty thoroughly, but it remains to be seen whether or not they will furnish an opportunity to some other writer for an expression on the subject. If you can print them all together I think that other people, as well as myself, will like to compare them.

ANNIE H. WILSON.
February 12, 1906.

OPPORTUNITY.

Master of human destinies, am I!
Fame, love and fortune on my footsteps wait.

Otties and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and seas remote, and passing by Hovel and mart and palace, soon or late

I knock unbidden once at every gate!

If sleeping, wake; if feasting rise before
I turn away. It is the hour of fate,
And they who follow me reach every state

Mortals desire, and conquer every foe Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate

Condemned to failure, penury and woe

Seek me in vain and uselessly implore
I answer not, and I return no more!

JNO. J. INGALLS

OPPORTUNITY.

Tois I beheld, or dreamed it in a dream:
There spread a cloud of dust along a plain,

And underneath the cloud, or in it raged
A furious battle, and men yelled, and swords

Shocked upon swords and shield; a prince's banner

Wavered, then staggered backward, hemmed by foes.

A craven stood upon the battle's edge And thought: "Had I a sword of keener steel,

That blue blade that the king's son bears, but this Blunt thing"—he snapt and flung it from his hand

And lowering crept away and left the field.

Then came the king's son, wounded,
sore bestead,

And weaponless, and saw the broken sword,

Hilt buried in the dry and trodden sand.

He ran and snatched it, and with battle shout

Lifted afresh he hewed the enemy down,

And saved a great cause that heroic day.

EDWARD ROWLAND - III.

OPPORTUNITY.

They do me wrong who say I come no more

When once I knock and fail to find you in;

For every day I stand outside your door,

And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.

Will not for precious chances passed away,

Weep not for golden ages on the wane!

Each night I burn the records of the day:

At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,

To vanished joys be billed and des'nd
and dumb;

My judgements seal the dead past
with its dead,

But never bind a moment yet to come.

Though deep in mire, wring out your hands and weep:

I lend my arm to all who say
"I can!"

No shamefaced on east ever sank so deep

But yet might rise and be again a man!

Do thou behold thy lost youth all
aght?
Do thou behold thy lost youth all
aght?

Then turn from blighted archives of the past
And find the future's pages white as snow.

WALTER MALONE.

OPPORTUNITY.

Opportunity knocks at every man's door. On some men's doors it knocks and it breaks down the door and it goes in as a night water man.
On other men's doors it knocks and it goes away, and on the doors of some men it knocks and it goes in and it hits into over the head with an ax.
But every man has an opportunity.

MR. DOOLEY.

Improved Order of Redmen.

Higginsville Leader:
The Improved Order of Redmen organized a lodge here Saturday night. There were nearly forty charter members. Lexington lodge had charge of the degree work. Fifty-three members in all were here from Lexington and forty-two from the Order lodge. On the night previous the following officers were elected for a year and the local order is known as Missouri Tribe.

J. G. Coe, sachem; Thos. Thomas, senior sagamore; W. B. Harris, junior sagamore; Wm. Mount, prophet; M. W. Curtis, chief of records; Dr. Frank McGinnis, keeper of wampum; W. M. Holt, guard of the wigwag; Wm. Sebastian, guard of the forest; Wilkes Thomas, first sennep; E. M. Petering, second sennep; David Lynch, first warrior; Noah Waddell, second warrior; J. B. Vaughan, third warrior; Will Thomas, fourth warrior; Alozo Rogers, first brave; A. L. Millsap, second brave.

READ THIS.

Higginsville, Mo., Sept. 13, 1901.—It affords me great pleasure to say to all those who may be suffering as I have been for the past fifteen years with kidney and bladder troubles, I have been using the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, until I have used almost one-third of a bottle, and I have received lasting benefit from its use and can recommend it to others similarly afflicted.

I. W. WHITSETT, Lawyer.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all Kidney and Bladder troubles, removes Gravel, cures Diabetes, Seminal Emissions, Weak and Lame Backs, Rheumatism and all irregularities of the Kidneys and Bladder in both men and women. Regulates Bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to cure any case above mentioned. Sold by all druggists.

A Bit Of Pure Sentiment.

Alon Brown's "Grief Deferred" in the March McClure's is a delicious bit of pure sentiment. It is the story of a woman who refused to give way to the sorrow of a youthful love affair, putting off her grief from day to day until she became an old lady, when through a combination of circumstances she finds that she need never give way to it. "I've had more happiness than most folks have in their whole lives," she says at the end, "I've had it here." Side by side with this naive theme, runs another love story of youth.

One would think the laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for coughs and colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Far does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Sold by Crenshaw & Young. 3-3ml

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—Dr. G. G. GAZZAR.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.

New trial bottles, 25c. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

GET THIS BEAUTIFUL COLORED PICTURE FREE.

Splendid Reproduction, in Sixteen Tints, of a Celebrated Painting.

Every person who sends one dollar to pay for a year's subscription to the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis, Mo., and Farm Progress, will receive absolutely free, a beautiful colored picture, 24 by 32 inches in dimensions, entitled "The Departure of the Bride from the Home of Washington." This picture is a direct reproduction from the celebrated painting by Ferris. Sixteen colors were employed in the process. It is made on a fine, heavy paper, and will make, when framed and hung, a magnificent ornament to the home. Aside from its genuine artistic merits it possesses an uncommon interest to every American, as the central figure in it is George Washington, standing at the portal of his Virginia home, bidding adieu to the bride and bridegroom. The color work is highly ornate and correct in every detail, as are the character representations, costumes, etc.

The Twice-a-Week Republic is the oldest and best semi-weekly family paper in the country, and Farm Progress, which is also published by the Republic, is the fastest-growing farm monthly in America. Remember that you get both of these splendid journals an entire year and the beautiful big colored picture all for only One Dollar.

Present subscribers may take advantage of this offer by sending a dollar and having their time marked up a year. The Republic hereby gives notice that this offer may be withdrawn at any time, and those who wish the picture should send in subscriptions at once.

Remit by post office or express money order, registered letter or bank draft. Do not send personal checks. Write names and addresses plainly and address
